Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer moving image file explicitly depicts sexual activity between an adult couple. There are elements of sexual role-play, including the woman wearing what is possibly a school uniform. However, neither participant presents as youthful, and the file in no way promotes or supports, or tends to promote or support, the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes. The availability of the file to children or young persons, who lack the maturity or experience to deal with explicit sexual material, is likely to have a negative effect on the development of healthy sexual attitudes and behaviours. Therefore the file is restricted to adults. This restriction interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, given the explicit sexual content of the publication, the restriction is reasonable and demonstrably justifiable in the interest of preventing injury to the public good.
